

Access Control

TECHNICIAN

Course # LSI160

In just ten days you will learn to install hardware and software for single and multi-door systems.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course gives students an excellent combination of knowledge and hands-on experience in access control systems.

- The fundamentals of electricity
- Battery operated, stand-alone access control locks
- Electrified locks
- Single door proximity systems
- Computer management of large scale multi-door systems
- Installation, programming, and operation of all access control system components
- Installation and operation of access control software

COURSE PREREQUISITE

The student must have basic computer skills. The student should be able to install and launch new software, find files on the PC, copy and move files, and navigate through different directories.

Note: A laptop computer is strongly recommended, but optional. The student MUST have administrative rights to install and configure software on the computer. Windows XP, 2000, or Windows 7. (VISTA is not supported)

Course Credentials include an LSI Diploma

COURSE SPECIFICS

Course Tuition - $2,750.

GSA Schedule - $2,450.

Course Length - Ten Days

Course Credit - 4 Hours

College Credit for additional Fee- $260. Optional

One Time Enrollment Fee - $100.

Lockmasters Security Institute / LSI • 1014 South Main St. • Nicholasville, KY 40356

TOSS • 13576 Minnieville Rd. • Woodbridge, VA 22192

866.574.8724 • www.LSI-TOSS.com

local 859.887.9633 • fax. 859.887.0810

 LOCKMASTERS
SECURITY INSTITUTE

 tactical operations
support services